The Great Fire of London Timeline of Events

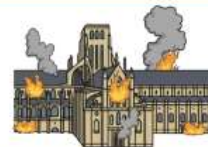

Sunday 2nd September 1666: The fire starts at a bakery in Pudding Lane.

Houses are pulled down in an attempt to stop the spread of the fire.

The fire spreads quickly as houses are made of wood and very close together.

Tuesday 4th September: St Paul's Cathedral is destroyed by the fire.

Wednesday 5th September: The wind dies down and the fire slows down.

Thursday 6th September: The fire is put out.
